

We are
#SwissWrestling

JOB ADVERTISEMENT

NATIONAL COACH WOMEN for Elite and U23

The Swiss Wrestling Federation (SWFE) is the professional sports association for Olympic wrestling in Switzerland. In this function, we combine popular sport with competitive sport. We organize Swiss individual and team championships. We manage the national squads, train athletes and coaches and represent the clubs vis-à-vis Youth+Sport, Swiss Olympic and the Federal Office of Sport.

We are looking for a new national coach (50%) for our women's elite and U23 squads as of November 2024.

Job tasks

- o Responsibility for the individual performance development of the athletes
- o Cyclized competition and training planning
- o Operational work on the mat during the squad measures
- o Regular presence at the training location of the women's squad
- o Strategic management of the relevant regional and club coaches
- o Carrying out performance diagnoses and competition analyses
- o Coordination with the responsible athletics coaches and the medical staff
- o Coordination and communication of all performance-related factors
- o Representing elite sport within and outside the organization
- o Constant target definition and quality control with the sports management

Sports Management
Swiss Wrestling Federation
sport@swisswrestling.ch

Profile

- o Excellent knowledge of women's wrestling
- o Experience as a coach in competitive and high-performance sport
- o Diploma or professional trainer (or comparable qualification)
- o International network in wrestling
- o Ability to teach complex technical and tactical elements
- o Passion for daily, practical work with motivated athletes
- o Communication skills in dealing with female athletes and coaches
- o Willingness to reflect and undergo further training
- o Open approach to digital tools
- o At least C1 in German, English or French

Offer

- o Challenging, versatile work in competitive and high-performance sport
- o Innovative, interdisciplinary and international field of activity
- o Working with young, talented and motivated female athletes
- o Good conditions for targeted athlete development
- o Involvement in the strategic design of the sports department
- o Responsible leadership role in Swiss wrestling
- o Future-oriented and sustainable working structures
- o Opportunity to work in a young and dynamic team
- o Flat hierarchies and space for your own ideas
- o Attractive employment conditions as recommended by Swiss Olympic

Application

For further information, please contact the sports management, Philipp Rohrer (phone: 0041 61 535 05 45, p.rohrer@swisswrestling.ch) and Oliver Hassler (phone: 0049 176 220 38 92 3, o.hassler@swisswrestling.ch).

Applications must be submitted electronically to sport@swisswrestling.ch by September 15, 2024.